THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

inspiration

1 As with so much in Palazzo Angelo Giovanni Spinola, some of the 'velvet' is trompe l'oeil (page 276). But why bother with brushes when there's Colony's sublime 'Metropolis' in pompeii (£360 per m)? Visit colonyuk.com.

2 Allow us to present 'Damasco Giardino Craquelé' in corallo/gold by Luigi Bevilacqua – a dead-ringer for Carlo Clavarino's tablecloth (page 272) and yours for £564 per m at Alton-Brooke. Ring 020 7376 7008, or visit alton-brooke.co.uk.

3 A name for every marchese's Rolodex: Paul Mitchell, purveyor of antique frames (a Baroque Florentine example is £18,000) to rival that on page 276. Ring 020 7493 8732, or visit paulmitchell.co.uk.

4 T is for: trompe l'oeil, all over the palazzo (page 266), and Timna Woollard, a specialist decorator capable of incredible effects. From £700 per sq m. Visit timnawoollard.com.
