Wonder walls

SIMON BROWN

After working as a decorative painter and muralist for 30 years, Timna Woollard (pictured) has launched her first collection of wallcoverings. Les Fauves is a tribute to the 20th-century group of artists who favoured strong colour and line. 'I started to design the collection during lockdown and wanted to express something joyous and uplifting,' says Timna. There are five designs in a range of colourways, each of which is sketched by Timna before being digitally scanned and printed in England. Pictured above (from left) are 'Bouquet' in yellow, 'Garlands & Baskets' in blue & white, and 'Floral Swags' in dusty pink. Each design is printed to order, with a three-week lead time; from £145 for a 10-metre roll. timnawoollard.com >
