

COUNTRY LIFE

The tribune hall has been painted with a fantasy landscape, depicting hills and mountains and ruins in an Italian manner; the ceiling above the first-floor landing has been painted as sky. This work, including the depiction of Mr. Mellon's own dogs in the foreground, helps to amplify this handsome space by the artist was Timna Woollard of London.

COUNTRY LIFE

